D E D I C A T I O N

We respectfully dedicate this yearbook to the memory of Diane Margaret O'Donnell who lost her life in a plane crash of January 18, 1960 in Virginia.

She was salutatorian of the Class of 1951. Diane was very active in clubs and athletics. She played basketball and softball; was a member of the glee club, orchestra, student council, and on the Windjammer staff; took part in public speaking; and placed fourth in an Interscholastic English test.

After graduating from Searsport High School, she attended the University of Maine and later graduated from Husson College. After graduating from college she became interested in aviation and entered Grace Downs' School, training to become a stewardess. She was in the employ of Capitol Airlines for about six months.

Diane was full of life and was well liked by all who knew her, and was affectionately known among her classmates and friends as "Lightning."

SENIOR REPORT

Senior activities have been varied this year. We started out with Freshman Reception, which was a great success. Next we held a food sale and sponsored a supper and dance. We also sold refreshments at games and dances, which helped add to our treasury.

The class officers elected for the year were:

President	Malcolm Curtis
Vice-President	Maurice Day
Secretary	Bonita Murray
Treasurer	Hazel Jackson

Members of the Student Council were: Sharon Stone, Paul Gilmore, Larry Clements, and Margaret Jeffery.

Many of the Seniors were also prominent in some of the clubs.

We added our share to the basketball teams. Those participating were: Bonita Murray, Judy Small, Sharon Stone, Malcolm Curtis, Maurice Day and Harold Lenfest. Others helping the teams were: Hazel Jackson, Manager; Judy Small and Priscilla Rivers, Varsity Cheerleaders.

We would like to express our appreciation for all the help and guidance that the teachers have given us. I am sure that none of us will forget Searsport High School.

JUNIOR CLASS

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers:

President		Judy Garrity
Vice-President		Paul Otis
Secretary		Sharon Rich
Treasurer		James Engstrom

The members of our class participating in basketball this year were: Weldeena Hersom, Lois Moulton, Helen Varney, girls' basketball; Keith McKeen, Holly Bagley, Albert Dakin, boys' basketball; Mary Harriman, Judy Garrity, Pat Martin, and Priscilla Young, cheerleaders.

The Junior class won first place in the magazine drive this year.

There are also many members of the class interested in dramatics and public speaking this year.

We would like to thank Mrs. McCaslin, our homeroom teacher, for her help during our Junior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

We began our Sophomore year with 30 students. We lost three and gained five: Paulette Knight, Ruth Clark, Kenneth Maddocks, Donald Pease, and David Dawbins.

At our first meeting the class elected the following officers:

President	George Small
Vice-President	Ruby Marden
Secretary	Cynthia Clark
Treasurer	Terry Blake
Student Council	Cheryl Clark, Terry Veinot

The members from our class who participated in basketball this year were: Cheryl Clark, Ruth Clark, Judie Ellsmore, Barbara Partridge, Joe Ashe, Malcolm Collins, David Dawbins, and George Small. Others helping out our teams were, Paulette Knight and Sally Rivers, Junior Varsity cheerleaders; and Kenneth Maddocks and Terry Veinot, managers.

We would like to thank Mr. McCutcheon for the help he has given us throughout our second year of high school.

FRESHMAN CLASS

We began our first year of high school with forty students. We lost five and gained five. They were, Herbert White, Kenneth Smart, Gloria Smart, Gerald Welch, and Ronald Dahle.

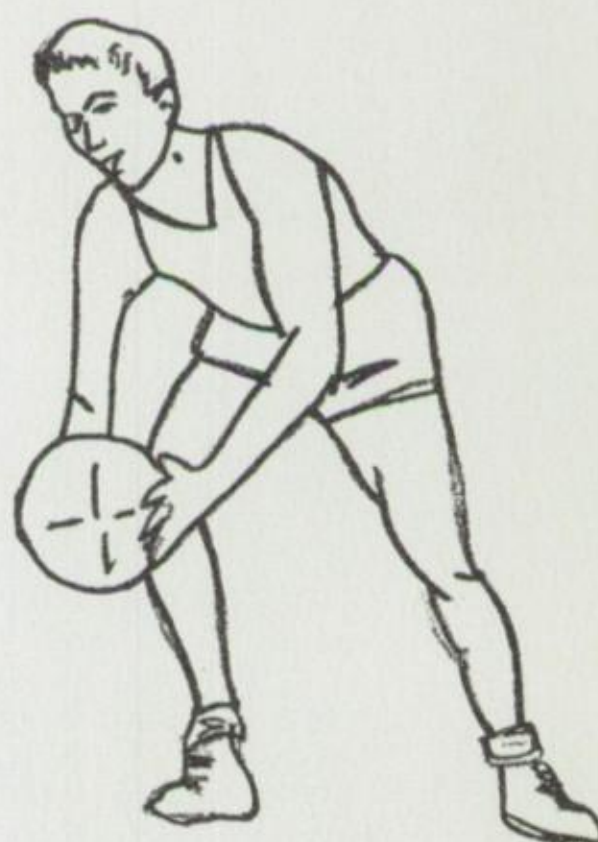

At the beginning of the school year we elected the following class officers:

President	Rhonda Welch
Secretary	Donna McKeen
Treasurer	Jay Fowler
Student Council	Gloria Smart, Charlene Knox

The members from our class who participated in basketball were: Donna McKeen, Kay Grant, and Pauline Cross. The cheerleaders from our room were Janie Cook, Katherine Morgan, and Donna Stockman.

C. Clark, J. Ellamore, W. Hersom, R. Clark; Manager, H. Jackson.*

GIRLS' SPORTS

The basketball squad this year consisted of thirteen girls who were picked from twenty-two at the beginning of this season.

The first string for the better part of the year was: Bonnie Murray, Barbara Partridge, and Donna McKeen, forwards, and Sharon Stone, Weldeena Hersom, and Helen Varney, guards.

The two lettermen, Bonnie Murray and Sharon Stone were elected co-captains. Hazel Jackson and Carol Nickerson were our managers and did a fine job.

Due to inexperience and injuries our season wasn't too successful, and we ended the year with a record of 9-9. There were only three seniors on the team this year so next year looks quite promising.

We would also like to express our appreciation to Mr. Pepin for the help he offered us.

We wish the teams of future years the best of luck.

CHEERLEADING

As usual many girls were anxious to become part of the cheering squad. However, only a small percentage was able to participate. Captain Judy Garrity, Judy Small, Priscilla Rivers, Mary Ann Harriman, Pat Martin cheered for the boys.

The girls who cheered for the Junior Varsity were: Captain Priscilla Young, Janie Cook, Kathy Morgan, Sally Rivers, and Donna Stockman. Priscilla Young was a substitute for the Varsity and Paulette Knight for the Junior Varsity.

In January we had a food sale which was very successful.

We, the cheerleaders of '59-'60, leave the cheerleaders of '60-'61 our uniforms, ability to always have one or two members absent for an important game, and all the fun, encouragement, heartbreak and happiness that we have enjoyed during the past year.

THE VIKINGS

The team this year was very successful because of the tremendous coaching of Mr. Pepin and the efforts of the boys.

An off-night loss to Hinckley cost us first place, but we managed to finish second in the Waldo League.

Our new coach gave the boys new spirit and stability which might have made a championship team except for some bad luck.

Even though we didn't get to the S & M tournaments this year we have a chance to go next year since we are losing only one player this year.

INDIVIDUALISM

What is individualism? What are my ideas and opinions? I think that individualism is not just to act different, but to have different creative ideas. If you have such ideas you should use them to your best ability. This characteristic of being an individual is sometimes overlooked.

Perhaps the reason for this is that we are not quite mature yet.

I think that sometimes adults are not individuals either. Mob rule is an example of adults, or people nearly adults, not being individuals. Mobs have this lack of individual thinking and doing. I believe that if people have interest such as reading and listening to others it might help them to do more individual thinking. With proper thinking on the part of individuals, there would be no mobs of any kind.

Today adults are hasty to make and form opinions. They sometimes make accusations in which there is no, or little, truth.

An individual with an intelligent mind should listen to the facts, and then form his opinion. He would not voice his opinion to everyone unless he was asked for it. His opinion would be his own. He would listen to all of the statements about anyone and then form his own opinion.

Each person should have some reasoning power so that he is able to form his own opinion and make his decisions.

It takes more than your opinion to make you an individual. Being an individual means being able to live a life of your own, and being able to live with all kinds of people and to observe the standards that one's own thinking should bring to mind.

The United States believes in team work. People working together accomplish much. But we should not lose sight of the value of individualism in the emphasis placed today on teamwork. Individual opinions have always had the property of bringing new and valuable advances to humanity.

THE TOWN OF SEARSPORT

Searsport is a thriving little community in Maine overlooking part of Penobscot Bay. It is a very interesting town.

If you were coming to Searsport from Belfast, you would probably notice a red building with a large sign saying "Maine Textile Center." It would be nice if you stopped and looked around in here. You would find every kind of textile imaginable. Searsport has a women's club and a 4-H Club. Members of these clubs frequently go to the textile center to purchase materials to make various pieces of clothing for their clubs.

There are two marine museums in Searsport. They contain extremely interesting things to see. By visiting at these museums a person can find out a lot of new things about Maine.

If you happened to be in Searsport on a Sunday, you would have your choice of three different churches to attend. There is a First Congregational, a Second Congregational, and a Methodist Church in Searsport. All three of these churches have various social activities besides their regular Sunday services. Also they are very beautiful to look at, both on the outside and inside.

There are three schools in Searsport—a primary building, a grammar building with grades three, four, and five, and a high school building. Students of grades six through twelve attend school at the high school. The town has set up definite plans for a beautiful new school building.

Searsport has some very nice stores. In spite of the fact that it is a small town, there are two fairly good sized hardware stores, two grocery stores, and a drug store. Also, there is a village Variety Shop where you can get school supplies, some pieces of simple clothing, and other various items.

Searsport has a wonderful industry. Two-thirds of the people of the town work at Northern Chemical.

Searsport may be small, but it is a nice place to live or even visit.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Driver Education is one of the most interesting, thrilling, and spine-tingling classes I have ever enrolled in. You really should take a job teaching it. It is quite easy to qualify; all you need are the patience of Penelope, the courage of Hale, and the nerves of steel. Of course this doesn't apply to teaching boys. Boys, being smarter than girls, make much better drivers in the end.

The first thing to do is corral your group and head for the car. Then you select one of the members (it will probably be a girl because you can't resist sitting close to them in hopes that you have to steer in a pinch). Then, when you think you're ready, you tell her to start the engine. That's when the fun begins; r-r-r ching-clak-chank-fevook.

"What happened?" she asks as you depress your clutch and shift from second to neutral. Then you explain that it is customary to depress the clutch and shift to neutral before starting. Finally, after following the trial-and-error method, the car is under way.

Next comes shifting. It's too bad that more girls don't get to see the inside of an automobile transmission. Then they might realize that second isn't just up. Anyway, you're riding along in too low a gear and you tell her to shift to second. Then comes the gear breaking grind that comes from shifting from a forward gear into reverse.

Finally, you're going along in high gear and you want to turn a corner. You are not 70 feet from the corner and doing 45 mph. Of course this isn't just any corner; it is about a 70° angle on a slippery road. By the time you decide that she isn't going to brake you're already on the corner and it is too late.

These are only a few of the interesting things that can happen to you. There are many more you wouldn't want to miss. So why miss out on the fun? Start teaching driver education and enjoy life; the quiet life that you were leading.

STEPHEN CARD

ENGLISH TEST

I'm in an English classroom at Searsport High School. Today is the day. Why couldn't he be like other teachers and tell us a week ahead about his test? He probably knows that I never do any studying anyway. Maybe that's why he's surprising us with a test, to catch me.

You can tell by looking into his beady, little eyes that he has a mean streak.

I always wondered why they let people like him in a school. Look at the way he walks up and down the aisles. He's probably deciding which ones to flunk. There I knew it. Get a load of that sarcastic tone. "Just a little quiz over recent work," he says.

Thank goodness for bells. I couldn't have stood that English room another minute.

I think that they only practice on that piano because they know that I am trying to study. How is anyone supposed to concentrate on "English" under these conditions? We've been going over it in class for weeks.

What a way to start the morning. I'd laugh if there weren't enough tests to go around, but the way he picks on me he would be sure I got one anyhow. No such luck! Here they come.

I never thought that I would dread the results of a test as much as I do this one. I sure wish I could have stayed home today. Hurrah! Hurrah! I passed.

I just knew, I wasn't lying to mother or Maxie when I told them I understood English.

That teacher is just the fairest and most intelligent person I know. He wrote that my mark was for effort shown.

WELDEENA HERSOM

I, HOUSE

I am a house, a very sad and lonely house, for I am a summer house. My mistress and children have gone away to their winter house. I am alone and soon will grow cold with no one to build fires in me.

When summer is here the mistress and children will come in and fill me full of warmth and happiness. The little boy will give me a few love taps by pounding nails in me. The little girl will give me a kiss every time she takes a step and lands on her face. Ah, but the mistress is kindest of all. Every time she backs out of the garage with that huge station wagon she chips paint and wood off my sides and takes half the door with her. But I still love them.

He's gone and I'm alone. That's why I like summer; everyone is here having a good vacation and I'm not alone any more. I don't even mind the dogs with their continuous, enjoyable barking all night long. I'm so glad when they're here so I'm not lonely.

I don't mind if the little boy and girl give me a bath with the hose, pound nails into my aching sides, climb all over me, and clog my pores with paint and tar. They're here and I'm happy.

I remember last summer the family went off on a yacht down the coast for the day. The crazy baby sitter came over about seven in the morning. She fed the little girl and put her to bed. Then she tried to do the dishes; by the time she finished she only had a quarter of what she started with. Then on goes she with the short-wave set full blast. The vibrations were enough to drive me insane but when that screechy sound passed through my drums—man, I'd had it!

Of all the things I've said about those wonderful people I'm connected with—I've meant every last word.

JUDITH ELLSMORE

The Way I Feel About Teachers

Teachers aren't as bad as the students try to make out they are.

A lot of people say that a teacher has an easy job, but if they stopped to think they might realize that isn't true.

The worst part of a teacher's job, in my opinion, is that they have to teach a great number of pupils, each one different in his own way, five days a week, and get sassed by a bunch of wise guys, and then if a teacher puts them on detention, they say the teacher is ugly, mean, and unfair. I ought to know; I am one of them.

I think that if students would stop and think that the teachers are working for and not against them, that things would be better, and the students and teachers would get along better.

If a teacher went to school and let the students do as they please, it's for sure they wouldn't learn very much. As much as I hate to say this, I think that there should be a rule made that a student who lips off to a teacher, or talks back to them more than two or three times, should be kicked out. Then I think the students would stop and think things over before they talked back many more times.

A teacher has one of the most important jobs there is, and one of the toughest. I think that a teacher should also be proud when he sees one of his former students doing some great thing to help people in the world.

I know that I can't growl about the teachers that I have got. They are teaching us things that we need to know and if we can't pay attention and listen, whose fault is that?

Teachers aren't any different from any other people, and they should be respected by all people and especially by their students.

There are many more good points than bad points to a teacher if a person will stop and think.

Gossip

Gossip, gossip, gossip is going around the school.

You should not repeat it; that is the rule.

If you do, you know; it will be worse.

You are not the one; the one who will be hurt.

Repeat it, repeat it, that is what everybody says.

How many times do you repeat it each and every day?

You know it is not right, even when you are warned.

It is not your reputation; the one which will be harmed.

PAUL GILMORE

The World Outside

The world outside—

What is it like?

Is it so wide

It slides from sight?

Why can't we see
It far and wide?
It seems to me
It wants to hide.

PRISCILLA RIVERS

'Twas the Night of the Game

'Twas the night of the game
And all through the hall,
The spectators were cheering
For their team to get the ball.

The coach on the bench,
With extra players besides,
Was giving off orders
For the team to abide.

They walked onto the floor
With victory near at hand.
If they could win this one,
Everything would be grand.

With the help of the audience
And the cheerleaders all together
They strutted off with a victory,
But felt they could have done better.

CHERYL CLARK

Safety

Safety first is a very good rule
To follow when going to and from school.
Please follow these rules wherever you go
Through fast moving traffic or traffic so slow.
Walk when there is a yellow light
Because an accident is an awful sight.
Always walk in the crosswalk lines
And obey all the traffic signs.
At home, please practice all safety laws
So there'll be no use for Band-aids and gauze.

If you practice these rules each day,
You will be helping in a great way.
This is a safety council in our school
To help you obey all these rules.

MAXINE GILMORE

Cheering Practice

Each afternoon right after school
We all go down to Union Hall.
We stand around and have a ball
And then decide what cheers to do.
We do some cheers, just one or two.
Then start to argue and start a fight,
Priscilla gets mad and says "all right,
Be sure you're here on time tonight."

SALLY RIVERS

Going Steady

Be my love and I will cherish you,
Forever shall we be as one
For always have I adored you
And will until there is no sun.

The stars shall rejoice
The heavens shall ring
When you make your choice
And accept my ring.

Make me your choice, my darling.
To be yours is my greatest hope.
Tell me that you'll take my ring
And make a cloud my float.

And now you are mine,
I shall never let you go
And now the sun shall shine
And the river of love shall flow.

CARLTON SMITH

When Spring Arrives

When days are nice and the sun is hot,
We should be learning, but would not,
We often think of the mountain brook;
We should be reading our English book.
Our marks go down and our minds are slow
When Spring arrives.
We should be glad for the long hours spent
In the old class room, where we should be content
When studying English and history rules
And trying to forget the old swimming holes.
Think now, and please tell me,
How to keep my mind where it ought to be,
When Spring arrives.

Fort Knox

Overlooking the beautiful Penobscot,
Stands a fort many years old.
Standing in a bold and scenic spot,
With many a secret untold.

Go back to the days before we were born,
When our forefathers toiled from early dawn,
With ox team of two and four and six,
Preparing for enemies that might exist.

Many quiet years have passed on these banks,
With never a battle or call to the ranks.
We're thankful for this fortress of rocks
Our non-historical, "Old Fort Knox."

DRAMATICS

The one-act play, If Girls Asked Boys for Dates, was presented for state competition, March 21, at Belfast. The other competitors were Unity, Freedom, Crosby and Bucksport.

The play was a comedy dealing with the unlikely situation of girls being the aggressors in the battle of the sexes. It portrays vividly the emotions that a shy young boy might well go through in waiting for and meeting his first date.

The announcer who set up the unlikely scene was Stephen Card. Mrs. Smith (Bonnie Murray), was the understanding, warmhearted mother. George (Dennis Ward), was the shy young boy waiting for his first date. Nancy (Margaret Jeffery), was the wolfish type, taking George on his first date. Harry (Owen Smith), was the sophisticated, experienced, ladies' man, and Kay (Priscilla Rivers), was Harry's date who was almost ready to take the big step and go steady.

Although Crosby won, our play was second. Dennis Ward was commended for his fine performance.

On April 1, the same play was presented at Winterport. The other high schools that competed were Brooks and Winterport.

Five students entered the Speaking Contest held at the University of Maine, April 16. The following presented: Carlton Smith (original oratory), Dennis Ward (serious prose), Barbara Partridge (humorous prose), Judy Ellsmore (public address), and Cynthia Clark (poetry).

The Waldo County Speaking Contest was held on May 5. At the time of this writing the contestants were not chosen, but we are hoping to win for the third year in a row.

JOKES

Maurice: "How do you teach a girl to swim?"

Harold: "That's easy, first you put your arm around her waist, then take her left hand."

Maurice: "But this girl is my sister."

Harold: "Aw, push her off the pier."

Bonnie: "I'm a dairy maid in a candy factory."

Larry: "What do you do?"

Bonnie: "I milk chocolates."

"Here you are Mr. Phalen. Your wife has given birth to this bouncing baby boy! Shall I wrap him?" "No, I'll eat him here."

General: "Are you happy in the Army?"

Stretch: "Yes, Sir!"

General: "What were you before you were drafted?"

Stretch: "Much happier, sir."

Dennis W.: "Can I go out and play?"

Mother: "What, with those holes in your shoes?"

Dennis W.: "No, with the kids across the street."

Teacher: "Here is your arithmetic problem: If an automobile is 10 feet long, and if a million cars were parked end to end..."

Jack: "I know the answer. It's Sunday afternoon."

Mr. McCutcheon: "What's the title of that book you are reading?"

Stretch: "It's called what every girl wants."

Mr. McCutcheon: "Let me see it. I want to see if they spelled my name right."

James E.: "Why did the moron go to the football game?"

Roy Y.: "Because he thought a quarterback was a refund."

Mr. Murray: "Is this hair tonic any good?"

Barber: "Yes, sir! I spilled some on my comb and now it is a brush."

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF

Harold was at school on time.

Mabel came to school late.

Esther stopped chewing gum.

Judy suddenly grew tall.

Malcolm wasn't Class President.

Hazel couldn't type.

Bonnie couldn't get to 7th period study hall.

Carleton came to school a week.

Roy had to walk to school.

Maurice got some sleep besides in school.

Pearl couldn't go to a basketball game.

Sharon didn't like blue.

Margaret didn't have competition.

Earl didn't get to Belfast.

Larry would help the Seniors.

Priscilla R. had a date with our English teacher.

Gloria lost her body-guard.

Paul G. flunked a test.

Rebecca couldn't giggle.

Cora Dean couldn't do bookkeeping.

Burton stayed in one place.

Mr. Phalen couldn't pick on the Seniors.

Holly B.: "Do you know what happened to the man who stayed up all night to figure out what happened to the sun after it set?"

Keith: "No, what happened?"

Holly B.: "It finally dawned on him."

Mrs. Rivers: "Can you tell me why the hand of the Statue of Liberty is just 11 inches long?"

Mrs. Mac: "Why, if they'd made it one inch longer, it would have been a foot."

Sharon: "Why did George hang the curtain in the extra room?"

Margaret: "I don't know. Why?"

Sharon: "Because he wanted to get the hang of it!"

BAND REPORT

This year our music director is Mr. Antonia Palleria of Camden.

Searsport's band consists of thirty-five members. Seventeen are high school pupils, nine are junior high, and nine are grammar school age. This band has been in existence for three years and has played at basketball games, in different parades and has been very successful. The band went to the Music Festival at Bucksport again this year as a separate unit. In the past it has been combined. The band has been working on the following selections:

- "Military Escort"
- "Star-Spangled Banner"
- "Wild Rose"
- "Little Giant"
- "Our Director"
- "Pacific Grandeur"

The band meets regularly once a week during the school year. They are very pleased with the fund the town has set up for uniforms. We hope that they will use them carefully and with respect.

PRESS CLUB

The Viking Press Club has been very successful this year. We have published four issues of the Viking. We also sponsored a coloring contest for the children in the lower grades.

We elected the following officers:

Editor-in-Chief	Owen Smith
Asst. Editors	Dennis Ward, Bonita Murray
Secretary	Sharon Stone
Treasurer	Hazel Jackson

The other members have been active as reporters and have helped in the publication of the papers.

We hope next year's club will be even more successful.

THE SAFETY COUNCIL

The Safety Council, elected by last year's Safety Council, met recently and elected the following officers:

President		Malcolm Curtis
Vice-President		Malcolm Collins
Secretary		Sharon Stone
Treasurer		Hazel Jackson

This year the council decided that, to be a successful council, we must be active and effective. It was also decided that one meeting a month would be sufficient.

Our first big undertaking was a project making Reservoir and Church Streets one-way, for the purpose of increasing safety. The council drew up an article which was put in the Town Report.

The council feels this is a good start towards making our school, our students, and our town more free of accidents and we hope the future councils of Searsport High School will continue to be more active each year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council met and elected the following officers:

President Sharon Stone
Vice-President Paul Gilmore
Secretary-Treasurer Margaret Jeffery

One of our main activities was to participate in a salute to Searsport High School on Dave Hart's "Dance Party." Several members of the student body were chosen to be on the program. Sharon Stone and Malcolm Collins were the spokesmen for the group. In the spring Dave Hart will sponsor a dance for the school students.

The members and officers wish to acknowledge the help and advice they received from their advisor, Mr. Murray.

SEARSPORT HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1956

"There's Been Some Changes Made"

At the time this class was looking to the future as citizens of the world, we, the Junior High Class of 1956, were looking to the future as citizens of Senior High School. Many changes have taken place in each group.

The past four years of the Class of 1960 are fresh in the minds of nearly everyone. But, what of that Class of 1956? Here are a few facts concerning them:

In 1956 Lewis Seekins married Mary Lou Hersom. They now have two girls and are living in Searsport. Lewis is working at Chemtron.

In 1958 Jean Hersom married Leroy Garton. They have one girl and are living in Searsport.

Doris Tripp is a senior at the University of Maine. She is at the College of Education studying to be a teacher.

In 1956 Rita Roberts married Dallas Collins. They have one boy and are living in Searsport.

Now at home in Searsport, Richard Jackson has completed four years in the Army.

In 1957 Marion Walker married Sidney McIntire. They have three children and are living in Camden.

In 1956 Doris Grindle married David Kinney. She is the mother of a set of twin girls. They are now living in Stockton.

In 1958 Marion Pendleton married Harold Perkins. They have one girl and are living in Winterport.

In 1957 Gerald Ryder married Evelyn Philbrook. They have a girl and a boy and are living in Belfast.

In April, 1960, David Choate married Judith Jackson. He is a graduate of the Maine Maritime Academy and is now working for the United Fruit Company. They are living in Searsport.

In 1956 Reginald Curtis married Ann Marriner. They have a girl and a boy. They are living in Searsport and Reggie works at Summer's Fertilizer Plant.

In 1959 Myra Gould married Ronald Philbrook. She graduated from Husson College in 1958 and has since been employed by the Welfare Department in Bangor, where they are now living.

James Curtis is in the Army, stationed in Germany.

EIGHTH GRADE REPORT

We started our year with forty-nine students, of which thirty-two were boys and seventeen girls. In September we elected the following officers:

President William Staples
Vice-President Linda Small
Secretary-Treasurer Robert Martin

The boys who participated in basketball were: William Rooney, Rodney Farris, Robert Nichols, Kenneth Kenniston, Bruce Mitchell, Wallace Lockhart, and Melvin Moulton. These boys along with the seventh grade boys have played several games this season and have won most of them. We are proud of the progress they have made along with the fine work of their coach, Mr. Grant.

The girls who made the cheerleading squad were: Carol Maddocks, Linda Small, Judy Krienke, Marion Smith, Verlie Johnson and Lorraine Murray.

We have enjoyed all three of our teachers, Mrs. Rivers, Mrs. Fisher, and Mr. Grant. We wish to express our appreciation for all their patience and effort during the year.

Third row: G. Tibbitts, M. Knox, D. Sanborn, J. Fraser, L. Engstrom, P. Small, P. Sylvester, G. Curtis, R. Martin, H. Littlefield, B. Rolfe, W. Hamilton.

We held a class meeting at the beginning of the year and elected the following officers:

President Cecil Curtis
Vice-President Michael Knox
Secretary-Treasurer James Clark

It was quite a change this year, being in a new and different school with different teachers, but we are getting used to it and are enjoying it now.

We have two teachers this year. They are Mrs. Rivers and Mr. Grant and we thank them for their patience all year.

Two boys in our room made the basketball team. They were Michael Knox and Richard Martin. Two girls made the cheering squad for Junior High. They were Jane Farris and Lois Card.

PRINCESS PROBLEMS

Once upon a time, not too long ago, there lived in a huge, magnificent castle, a very beautiful princess. She was rude, selfish, and kind of on the plump side, which was because she just loved ice cream. She ate it all day. She had pink ice cream for breakfast, green ice cream for dinner, chocolate ice cream for afternoon snack, vanilla ice cream for supper, and cherry pineapple flip for midnight snack. She was just crazy over ice cream!

One morning as she was eating her pink ice cream as usual, the queen said, "you must stop eating ice cream!"

But the princess being very rude, paid no attention and said, "Pass me some more ice cream."

So finally, after many attempts to stop the princess from eating so much ice cream, the king and queen sent out a notice that a $500 reward would be given to anyone who could stop the princess from eating ice cream.

The first two people failed and then came in a smart looking gentleman who suggested the princess try cake.

Well sir, she did and boy she sure did love it, but instead of eating cake instead of ice cream, she ate cake with ice cream. This was double trouble!!

After many attempts no one could stop the princess from eating cake or ice cream.

So if you ever have a chance to go to Squaresville and see the princess, she will be eating pink ice cream and cake for breakfast, green ice cream and cake for dinner, chocolate ice cream and cake for afternoon snack, vanilla ice cream and white cake for supper, and cherry pineapple flip with cherry cake for midnight snack!

EASTER

Easter is a happy time
For men and women both.
That is the time of Jesus Christ,
When he gave his life for us.
It was Friday that they crucified,
And Saturday when he rose.
He proved that he was truly
The Savior, Jesus Christ.

WHAT GOD GAVE US

God gave us his love,
And he gave us the trees,
He gave us the dove,
And he gave us the bees.

God gave us the flowers,
And the sun's pretty rays,
He gave us the hours,
And he gave us the days.

God gave us sight,
So we can see,
The beauty of light,
And the greenness of trees.

So to him we should be true,
Not just me but also you,
And worship him in every way,
And we will go to him some day.

LULUBELLE'S ADVENTURE

Lulubelle was a letter. This letter was a very special letter because it was written by a certain little girl to her grandmother. What made this letter so extra special was that it was the first letter this little girl had ever written. The little girl had written the letter and put it in a perfume-scented envelope. The little girl's mother addressed the letter and gave the girl some money to get a stamp for the special letter. When the stamp was bought, she placed it on the corner of the letter and put the letter in a little slot in the wall. Lulubelle was on her way.

Soon a lady took the letter and read the address to find out that it was going to California. The lady stamped the letter and put it in a big bag with lots of letters. Later that day a man picked up the bag and put the bag in the back of his truck with lots of other bags. They rode for a long time and then they stopped at Portland. Soon the bag was taken out of the truck and put on a train headed for New York. Lulubelle fell asleep. When she awoke she was in a large room full of letters in a New York Post Office.

The next day Lulubelle was put in a big blue bag and taken for another truck ride. Before Lulubelle knew what was happening she was way up in an airplane. After a while the airplane landed and Lulubelle was taken to a post office in Los Angeles. Here she was sorted out and put in a pigeon-hole.

The next morning a man dressed in a blue suit came and put her in a big bag he carried on his back. The man walked on a ways and then he took Lulubelle out of the bag and put her in a slot in a door. This must be the address on my front thought Lulubelle.

Soon a nice old lady, who was the little girl's grandmother, came and picked up the letter. She opened the letter and said, "Oh! A letter from my grandchild. How nice."

So Lulubelle had reached the end of her trip. Lucky Lulubelle!

Junior High Basketball

The Junior High Basketball team had a moderately successful season winning 10 of 18 games. During the season they won 5 of 8 league games, 1 of 4 non-league games and 4 of 6 tournament games. They finished third in the league and in both tournaments at Belfast.

Every player on the team scored and saw at least limited action. Leroy Moody and Robert Martin paced the scoring with 139 and 143 respectively.

Two of the players, Billy Staples and Bob Nickels, helped considerably by controlling the boards in many of the games.

The bench was also a big factor in this year's success.

The peppy cheerleaders gave encouragement to the players, as well as making the game more colorful and exciting.

This year the Junior High Cheering squad consisted of eight cheerleaders. They were: Judy Krienke, Linda Small, Marion Smith, Carol Maddocks, Lorraine Murray, Jane Farris, Lois Card, and Carol Blake, substitute.

We feel the boys have done a fine job this past basketball season.

Travel tips

FOR SCHOOL TRIPS

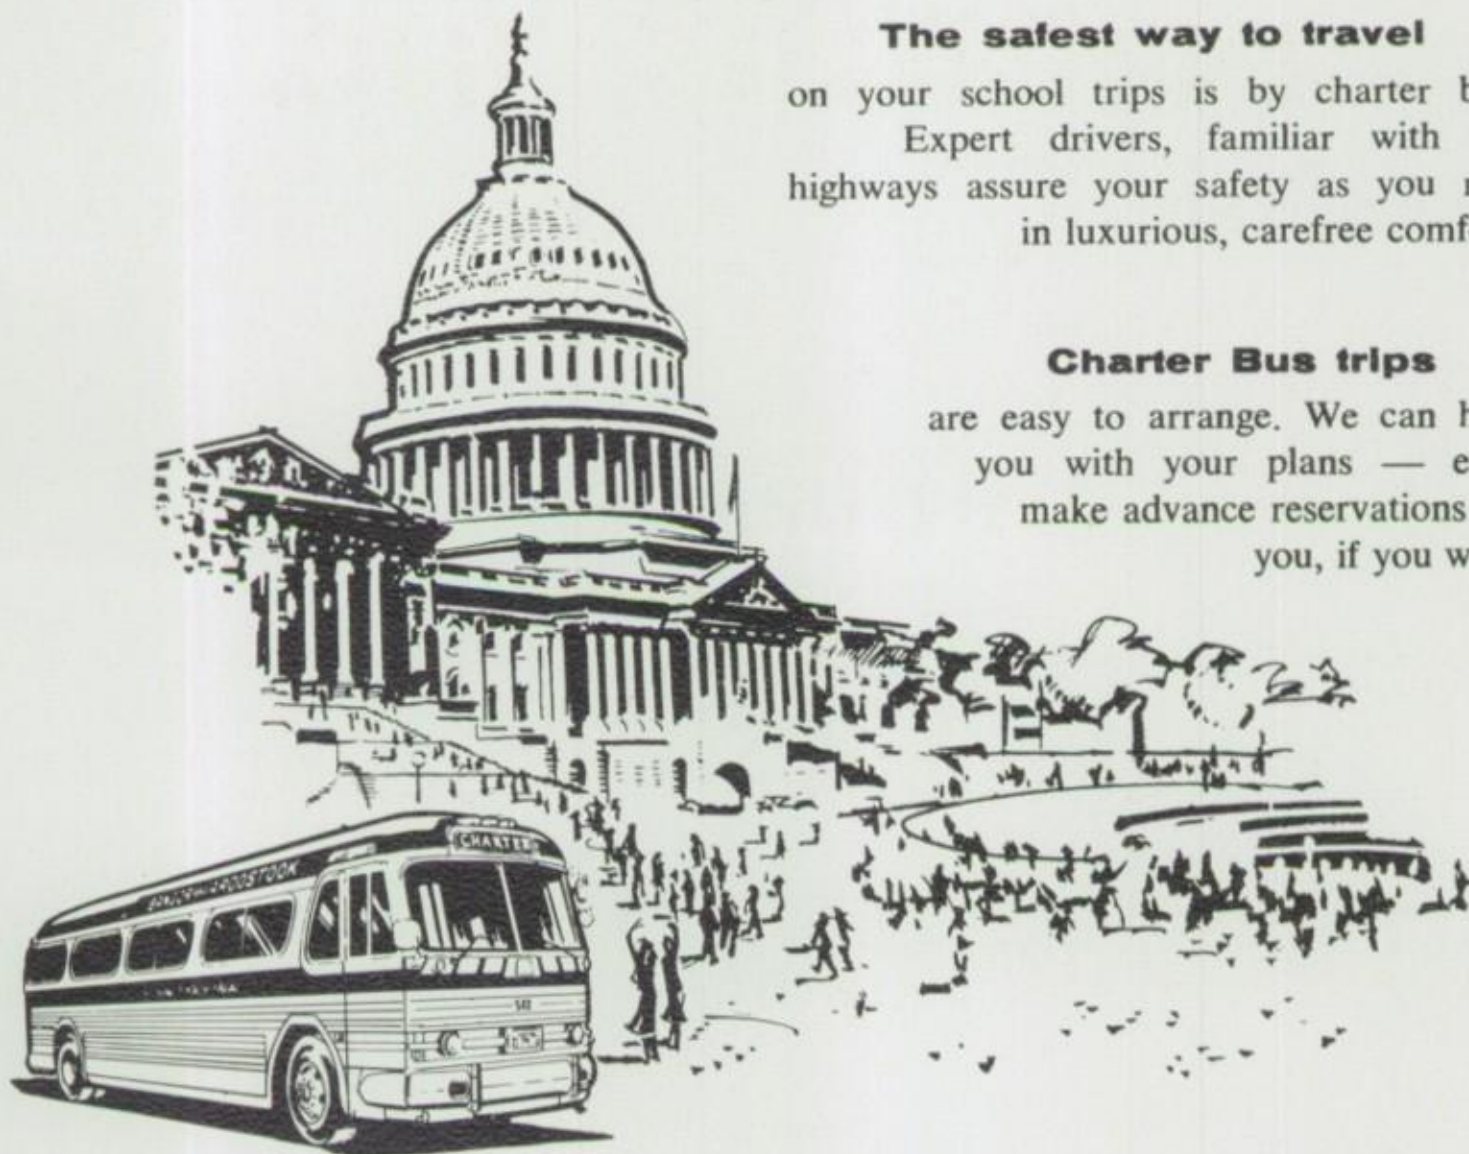

The safest way to travel

on your school trips is by charter bus.

Expert drivers, familiar with the highways assure your safety as you ride in luxurious, carefree comfort.

Charter Bus trips

are easy to arrange. We can help you with your plans — even make advance reservations for you, if you wish.

When planning your school trips, consider the comfort, safety, convenience and economy of Charter Bus Service. We can take you anywhere you want to go — in U. S. A., Canada or Mexico.

For information and rates, see your nearest Bangor and
